

SRSians Participated in 6th Coastal Study Camp at Kerala

It is a matter of great pleasure and proud that 9 girl students along with one female teacher - Ms. Sarina Rangji- became a part of sixth costal study Camp from 23rd December 2019 to 29th December 2019 at Cherthala in Kerala. It was organised by School Education Department Haryana, Panchkula. 9 girl students, who got first position in folk dance in group and solo district level cultural fest from classes 9 to 12 from each district of Haryana got this golden opportunity to be a part of this camp. The objective was to provide an opportunity for their physical, intellectual, social, emotional and spiritual development. They got acquainted with the lifestyle, culture, marine life and flora and fauna of sea coast.

There all the 198 girl participants of the camp enjoyed various activities like coastal tracking, visit to fishermen's village, a visit to an island, cultural exchange programme , a visit to Alappuzha beach, folk dance, rangoli making, painting and report writing competition. SRS was awarded with two shields and certificates- one for the best folk dance and one for the best escort teacher which was won by Ms.Sarina Rangji.

The wonderful memories of this one week camp will remain permanent in the minds of all the participants.

