1. People all over the world wash their hands with water. Using soapadds to the time spent in washing, breaks down the grease anddirt that carry most germs by facilitating the rubbing and frictionthat dislodge them and leave the hands smelling pleasant. Goodhand washing techniques include washing your hands with soapandwaterorusinganalcoholbasedsanitizer.It hasbeenreported that washing with soap is one of the most effective waysto prevent diarrhoeal diseases. It is also the cheapest way. Inaddition, hand washing with soap can limit the transmission ofrespiratorydisease,akillerofchildrenunderfive.Morehandwashing withsoapwouldmakeasignificantcontributiontomeetingthemillenniu mdevelopmentgoalofreducingdeathamongchildrenundertheageoffi vebytwo-thirds.

their fifth birthday because of diarrhoea and pneumonia. Despite its life- saving potential, hand washing is seldom practised and is not always easy to promote. On the other hand, lack of education about hand washing with soap not only increases the risk of diseases among children but also increases the number of death.

3. Acute respiratory infections like pneumonia is one of the leading causes of child death. Evidence suggests that better hygiene practices like washing hands with soap after defecation and before eating could cut the infection by about 25%. It seems pretty simple a step to make such a big change in the lives of the people. The best time to get accustomed to this is during childhood.

Q2. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

(10)

1. The population of India is increasing at an alarming rate. We can call it 'population explosion'. It is very harmful for the country. At present the population of the country is about 140 crore. About seventy new members are added to our society every minute. Feeding the teeming millions is already a big problem for India. All talk of progress is meaningless if the growth of population is not checked. So the greatest need of the hour is to educate our people about the need of small and planned families.

2. Control over diseases is one of the causes of this fast increase. Medical science has made a great progress. Powerful drugs have been invented. It is good that the death rate has decreased. But we should check the birth rate also. We must take steps to control the fast growth of our population. It is the most important task before the nation.

3. Gone are the days when children were thought to be the gifts of the Almighty. It is in our own hands to determine the number of children that we would like to have. It is never possible for any father to bring up a large number of children well and properly. He can't fulfill all their needs. He can't give them good education. Thus he spoils not only his own life but also the future of his children. A big family is a curse not only for an individual but also for the nation. The welfare of every individual is deeply linked with the size of the family to which he belongs. The smaller the family, the happier its members will be. Our government is doing its best to educate the people about the need of family planning. Now it is the duty of the people to cooperate with the government for their own welfare and for the welfare of the country at large.

Questions:

- (i) What do you mean by 'population explosion'?
- (ii) What is the greatest need of the hour?
- (iii) How is a big family a curse for an individual?
- (iv) What did people think about children earlier?
- (v) With which thing the welfare of every individual is linked?
- (vi) At present the population of the country is _____.
 - a. about 100 crore
 - b. about 200 crore
 - c. about 140 crore
 - d. about 90 crore
- (vii) The progress of the country is hampered by _____.

- a. poverty
- b. population explosion
- c. diseases
- d. all of these

(viii) What are the causes of population explosion?

- a. invention of powerful drugs
- b. decreasing death rate
- c. no awareness about family planning
- d. all of these

(ix) What does the word 'alarming' mean in the paragraph?

- a. dangerous
- b. existing
- c. behaving
- d. acting

(x) About what the government is trying to educate people?

- a. need of education
- b. need of moral values
- c. need of family planning
- d. need of farms
