Subject :-Environmental pollution at Bhiwani Zoo.

Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of the government to the rampant abuse of the available facilities in the Bhiwani zoo by tourists and the consequent endangering of the environment. I along with a group of students from DAV public school, Gurugram visited the zoo. I found that the tourists not only littered the place with non-biodegradable plastic packets and wrappers but also used fuel wood from the forest for cooking.

The tourists must regard Bhiwani zoo as a paradise and should love flora and fauna of the zoo. The zoo authorities should impose strict rules and regulations to improve the environment of the zoo.

Yours faithfully

The Person You Like Most

I like my mother very much.She is a valuable gift given to me by

God.My

Mother is Tara Devi. She is 45 Years old. She is a kind hearted lady. She loves me very much. She is a housewife. She gets up early to prepare our breakfast. She can cook tasty food. Her favorite food is rice and curry. She likes to drink coconut water. Her favourite colours are pink and blue. She helps me with my studies. She always thinks of us. She wakes before us and sleeps after us everyday. She is a generous lady. She donates generously to the social institutions.

She is a spiritual lady. She goes to temple daily. She worships there and feeds sparrows and dogs. I love my mother very much.

Cheating in the Examinations: A Curse

Cheating in examinations has become so common that the exam authorities find it very hard to control. Students consider cheating in examinations as their right. They use every means to deceive the supervisor and if they are caught, they shed tears of crocodile. They beg pardon and some also threaten the supervisor of serious consequences. Students use the creativity of their brain in cheating. Girls do not want to be left behind. Sometime, the coping is prearranged on a large scale. Once students receive the sheet of question, the questions are written on a sheet of paper and thrown out of the window. The friends, waiting outside, receive the question paper and back the answers.

Some states have passed strict laws to punish these students. The habit of cheating in examination among students need to be stopped because these things are not good for the society.

C. Travelling , a Source of Knowledge and Pleasure

Some might say that they detest travelling because it leaves them completely wearied and irritated. However, there are others who beg to differ. They believe that travelling, most certainly, is a source of pleasure as well as knowledge, and that is why, they enjoy their vacation to the fullest

One cannot deny that visiting new place and meeting new people enhances one's understanding and knowledge and at the same time lets one unwind from his daily routine. Travelling is a great stress buster as it entertains one, thus rejuvenating one to his core. But, why is traveling or going on a vacation so much fun and entertaining? It is so probably because being at new place allows one to learn about new cultures ,lifestyles, languages, experience new things, make new memories; try new cousins etc. one is intrigued no doubt, when one comes face to face with the vast diversity, which one way or the other unites the world. A wise person once said that it is not the destination that matters. It is always the journey made to reach the destination that matters the most.

Title:-The Importance of Loving Fellowmen

SummaryorPrecis:-Abu Ben Adhem woke up from a deep dream and saw an angle writing in a book of gold.He asked the angel to write his name down as one who loves his fellowmen, and the next night the angel showed him the names of those blessed by God, with his name at the top of the list.

B. .Title:-The Emergence of Humanity

Or

From Animal to Human

Summary:- Humans first appeared a million and a half years ago and had some advantages over animals, such as a large brain, an erect body, and the ability to speak. This enabled them to share ideas and plan together, making them far ahead of all other living creatures. Since then, they have achieved a lot.
